

Edited Newsletters & Proceedings of Scientific Meetings

Note: See also the list of organized astronomical meetings (p. 342). A global alphabetical list of authors-contributors to the proceedings can be found on the web²⁶⁰. Edited proceedings of non-astronomical meetings are not included in those lists. Newsletters are flagged with an asterisk.

450. * ESA IUE Newsletter 1-4 (1979) (Fig. 221)
451. Third European IUE Conference (A. Heck, E. Rolfe & B. Battrick), ESA SP-176 (1982) xiv + 622 pp. (ISSN 0379-6566) (Fig. 234)
452. UV Stellar Classification (A. Heck, B. Battrick), ESA SP-182 (1982) vi + 136 pp. (ISSN 0379-6566) (Fig. 234)
453. * Newsletter of the Working Group for Modern Astronomical Methodology (A. Heck, F. Murtagh) 1-8 (1985-1989)
454. Astronomy from Large Databases – Scientific Objectives and Methodological Approaches. Garching, 12-14 October 1987 (F. Murtagh, A. Heck), ESO Conf. & Workshop Proc. 28 (1988) xiv + 512 pp. (ISBN 3-923524-28-5) (Fig. 222)
455. Artificial Intelligence Techniques for Astronomy – Techniques d'Intelligence Artificielle pour l'Astronomie (XI^e Journée de Strasbourg – XIth Strasbourg Astronomical Day) (A. Heck), Obs. Astron. Strasbourg (1989) viii + 82 pp. (ISSN 0989-621X – ISBN 2-906361-04-6) (Fig. 134)
456. Fractals in Astronomy – Fractales en Astronomie (XII^e Journée de Strasbourg – XIIth Strasbourg Astronomical Day) (A. Heck), Vistas in Astron. 33 (1990) 245-424
457. * Newsletter of the IAU Comm. 5 Working Group on Astronomical Data (A. Heck) (1991-1994)
458. DeskTop Publishing in Astronomy and Space Sciences (A. Heck), World Scientific, Singapore (1992) xii + 240 pp. (ISBN 981-02-0915-0) (Fig. 132)
459. Astronomy from Large Databases II. Haguenau, 14-16 September 1992 (A. Heck, F. Murtagh), ESO Conf. & Workshop Proc. 43 (1992) x + 534 pp. (ISBN 3-923524-47-1) (Fig. 222)
460. Weaving the Astronomy Web (A. Heck, D. Egret), Vistas in Astron. 39 (1995) i-x + 1-126
461. Strategies and Techniques of Information for Astronomy (A. Heck, F. Murtagh), Vistas in Astron. 40 (1996) 361-440

462. Proceedings of the Fifth Workshop on Data Analysis in Astronomy (V. Di Gesú, M.J.B. Duff, A. Heck, M.C. Maccarone, L. Scarsi, H.U. Zimmermann), World Scientific, Singapore (1997) xiv + 422 pp. (ISBN 981-02-3171-7) (Fig. 162)
463. From Information Fusion to Data Mining (R. Molina, F. Murtagh, A. Heck), Vistas in Astron. 41 (1997) 327-461
464. Harmonizing Cosmic Distance Scales in a Post-Hipparcos Era (D. Egret, A. Heck), Astron. Soc. Pacific Conf. Ser. 167 (1999) xxiv + 342 pp. (ISBN 1-886733-88-0) (Fig. 162)
465. Future Professional Communication in Astronomy (A. Heck, L. Houziaux), Mém. Acad. Royale Belgique in 8° XXVII (2007) 256 pp. (ISBN 978-2-8031-0238-9) (Fig. 175)

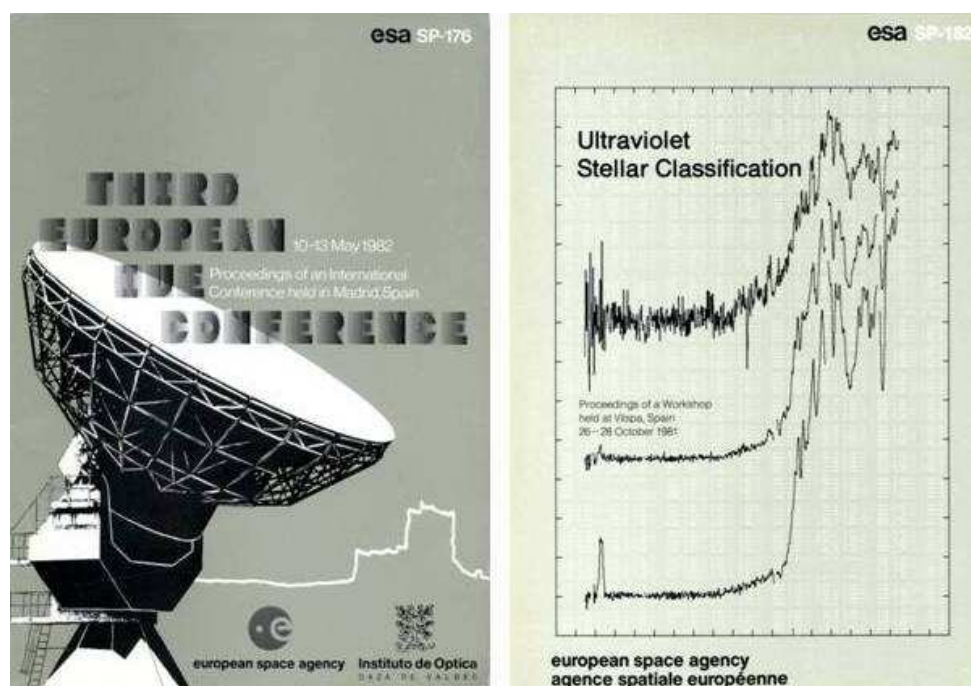

Fig. 234: Proceedings of two meetings organized with Heck's involvement: ESA SP-176 (Publ. 451) gathering together the contributions to the "Third European IUE Conference" (Madrid, 10-13 May 1982 – see also Fig. 87) and ESA SP-182 (Publ. 452) for the colloquium on UV spectral classification (Vilspa, 26-28 October 1981 – see also Fig. 85). Note that due to the way the ESA Special Publications were numbered at that time, the earlier colloquium has a higher number ...
